

THREE MEN HURT BY TRAIN WHEN AUTO IS STRUCK

Freight Hits Cham- paign Party on Way to Football Game

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Nov. 23.—One man was seriously injured, two others were slightly hurt and two escaped injury tonight when a Big Four freight engine demolished an automobile at the West Main street grade crossing in this city. The automobile contained five men en route from Champaign, Illinois, to Columbus, to witness the Illinois-Ohio State football game tomorrow.

The most seriously injured is Ross Trevett, of Champaign, Illinois. His left ankle was crushed and at the hospital it was said that amputation of the foot would be necessary. He was also badly cut and bruised about the body.

Lee Stonebraker, Champaign, Illinois, sustained a broken arm, scalp wounds and body bruises.

F. P. Graham, who said he was an attorney at Urbana, Illinois, and I. R. Maxwell, Champaign, Illinois, owner and driver of the car were injured.

William B. Kusinek, Champaign, Illinois, fifth occupant of the car went to the hospital but left without being treated. He is said to have sustained body bruises.

The watchman at the crossing said he flagged down the automobile but that the driver failed to heed the signal, driving directly upon the tracks and into the path of the locomotive.

COOLIDGE BELIEVES IN HOLDING PLANT AT MUSCLE SHOALS

Should be Kept to Provide Nitrate and Fer- tilizer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(AP)—President Coolidge feels that Muscle Shoals might properly be operated by the government at a loss or disposed of to private interests at a sacrifice in order that the United States may be assured of a war time supply of nitrate and a peace time supply of cheap fertilizer.

White house officials in presenting this statement of the chief executive's view today asserted that the president and Representative Madden, of Illinois, were working in harmony in the matter of legislation which would bring about construction of the Warrior River in Alabama of a duplicate of the Gorgas Steampower plant recently sold to the Alabama Power company.

The statement did not reveal whether Mr. Coolidge preferred government of private operation of the Muscle Shoals properties but it indicated that it was a matter as feeling that it was a matter of great importance for the United States to obtain a sure supply of nitrates and that some financial allowance should be made in the case of either type of operation for extensive experimentation.

The declaration that the president and Representative Madden were working in harmony was not explained in detail but was regarded as significant inasmuch as the proposed Madden bill contemplates acceptance of the offer of Henry Ford for lease and purchase of the Muscle Shoals. The president, however, has told several visitors within recent weeks that the whole matter of Muscle Shoals disposition is one for congress to determine.

Mr. Coolidge believes that under either private or government operation a period of experimentation will be necessary before nitrates can be produced for fertilizers cheaply enough to compete with Chilean nitrates.

PRESIDENT TO MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS IN MESSAGE TO CONGRESS

No Long Arguments or Dis- cussions Will be In- cluded

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—President Coolidge's message to congress will embrace a series of explicit recommendations rather than a presentation of long arguments and discussions of such recommendations.

The chief executive virtually completed work today on the message which is expected to have an extremely important bearing on his political fortunes. Several days yet will be required for the re-drafting of several sections, not for the purpose of changing their purport but to clarify the language, and the document will be sent to the printer probably early next week.

White house officials in making known that the message will present definite recommendations and contain little in the way of arguments in support of these recommendations said Mr. Coolidge expected his suggestions to congress to be acceptable as under their face.

Inasmuch as arguments and impressions will be absent, the message is expected to be rather brief.

Very little definite information has been given out regarding the contents of the message.

Three Major Questions

The general belief is that the three major questions upon which recommendations will be made are taxation, agricultural relief and transportation. The transportation question was discussed by Mr. Coolidge again today with Senator Cummins, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee. Senator Cummins advocates legislation to bring about consolidation of the railroads for more efficient operation and has announced he will introduce a bill to accomplish such a purpose.

The statement was made in behalf of the president after the conference between him and Senator Cummins that agreement between the two was regarded as more than probable. This was interpreted as meaning that whatever bill Senator Cummins introduces will bear the stamp of administration approval. One question set at rest with respect to the contents of the message today was that there would be no recommendation as to a general government building program.

EX-GOVERNOR WALTON OUT AGAIN, IN AGAIN

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 23.—(AP)—J. C. Walton, deposed governor of Oklahoma was indicted here today by a district court grand jury on charges of which he was impeached and removed from office by the state legislature. Seven indictments were returned against the former executive charging diversion of state funds, intimidating an officer and prohibiting an assembly of the lower house of the legislature.

Having anticipated the action, Walton immediately posted bond of $6,750 thru his attorneys and requested that the trial be held at once. He declined to make a statement but indicated he would have something to say later.

Six of the indictments allege felony offenses and the seventh a misdemeanor.

WRIGLEY IS READY FOR LEGAL FIGHT

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Attorneys for the Wrigley company tonight announced that the federal court against the findings of a master in chancery holding that the gum manufacturers were indebted to the L. P. Larson company for more than $3,000,000 for use of a gum wrapper on the basis of profits made by the company during five years.

William Wrigley, Jr., said that the case would be contested to the highest court and that it might be several years before any final decision could be reached. He said the company had set aside no money to make a settlement in this case for the concern did not expect to have to pay anything after the case is finally adjudicated.

His statement was made during a heated cross-examination under which the accused showed great excitement. Doctors certified that heart failure caused his death.

SAYS BLAME IS ON ENGLAND AND UNITED STATES

Poincare Claims Pact Should Have Been Ratified

PARIS, Nov. 23.—(A. P.)—The French parliament by one of the most sweeping votes of confidence in its history today approved the policy of the government of Premier Poincare in the recent negotiations in the council of ambassadors with regard to Germany.

The chamber gave the premier carte blanche to execute his program for future forcible action in enforcing complete execution of the Versailles treaty for the protection of France's national interests and security in accord with the allies if possible but alone if he must.

The vote was 505 to 70.

Premier Poincare in an address to the chamber today did not flinch in his attitude of stern determination to force the chamber immediately to proclaim its approval or disapproval of his policy.

The premier declared that France would act against Germany with or without the allies of her security was menaced; that France was ready to face a rupture with the entente if this became necessary to protect herself. Germany, he added, would be punished if she did not enable the inter-allied military control commission to watch German armaments and if she did not pay indemnity for the attack on members of the control commission in Leipzig.

M. Poincare declared that the failure of the United States and Great Britain to ratify the guaranty pact was at the bottom of the present trouble with regard to the military control commission.

Goodrich, former governor, and president of the National City Bank of Indianapolis, who was one of the organizers of the pool which advanced Governor Warren T. Governor Len Small Issues Thanksgiving Proclamation

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 23.—Governor Len Small, issuing his Thanksgiving day proclamation to the people of Illinois called upon them to "lay aside their usual pursuits and vocations and gather at their firesides and in places of public worship to give thanks for the blessings of the year."

"For three centuries the American people," the proclamation reads, "have given expression to their gratitude for bountiful harvests, free and enlightened government, general education, peace and national safety, and for the prosperity which has attended us throughout the years. A proper observance of the day offers opportunity for family reunions, homo-comings, the cementing of home and family ties. It is essentially America's great home day."

"Now, therefore, I, Len Small, Governor of Illinois, by virtue of the authority in me vested by the statutes, and in harmony with the proclamation of the President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and appoint Thursday, the 29th day of November, of this year, to be observed in the state of Illinois as a day of thanksgiving."

"And I call upon the people of the state to gather in their homes and in the churches on that day to offer up thanks to the Author of all good, for the many blessings which have been showered upon us in the State and Nation during the present year."

Signed,
LEN SMALL.

By the Governor,
Louis L. Emmerson,
Secretary of State.

Stresemann Resigns From German Cabinet

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—(A. P.)—Dr. Gustav Stresemann tonight resigned as chancellor when the reichstag by a vote of 230 to 155 denied his rump cabinet a vote of confidence. Seven deputies abstained from casting their ballots. After the ballot was taken, Dr. Stresemann tendered the resignation of himself and his cabinet, which President Ebert accepted.

The president immediately sent for Paul Loebe, president of the reichstag with whom he held a conference. Who will head the new government remains a mystery tonight. Herr Ebert has requested Stresemann to carry on current business until his successor is appointed.

The outcome of the second crisis during the chancellor's regime was in doubt up to a half hour before the voting took place, as there were strong influences at work in the ranks of the Socialists in the direction of weakening the party's opposition by permitting sufficient members of the party to absent themselves from the chamber, thereby cutting down the chancellor's numerical opposition in the plenary session.

The radicals, however, had so strongly pledged themselves in opposition to the Stresemann government and the German nationalists also had refused to recede from the position of outposts hostility so that the chancellor's fate was definitely sealed.

The vote may be said to have confirmed to the chancellor's wishes and his pronounced demand that it be decisive and free from equivocation. Earlier in the day he had announced his determination to reject any vote of approval which might accrue to him by the juggling of the three resolutions any one of which was designed to fall thru partisan tactics.

"This is the first time in the history of the young republic that the government has demanded a show down in open battle," the chancellor declared after the session. He said he believed the precedent set by him would prove a wholesome lesson for future cabinets and would break with the traditional custom of dodging responsibility by passing the buck to the quarreling political parties.

Just what will be the character of the government which will succeed the deposed ministry remained a mystery tonight.

Dr. Stresemann has been requested by President Ebert to carry on current business until his successor is chosen.

FATAL RESULTS FOLLOW USE OF SPECIAL SERUM

Three Insane Inmates Die From Injection of Specific

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 23.—(AP)—Three women patients at the Longview Hospital for the Insane died late today following injections of a specific used in the treatment of paresis. They were Mrs. Mercy Ackerman Crawford, 34, Mrs. Lena Glaser, 30 and Miss Marie Honkamp, 30. McCray $350,000 in an endeavor to save him from a financial crash had testified today and counsel for the three Port Wayne banks who filed a petition in federal court to have the governor adjudged a bankrupt, had filed an amended petition, the hearing in federal court was adjourned to be resumed in Indianapolis on Monday, December 3, when Harry C. Sheridan, master in chancery.

Fourteen women patients were to have been inoculated with the treatment but the reaction showed so quickly in the three victims that the treatment was discontinued immediately. All the preparation which is supplied to the hospital by the state board of health was shipped immediately to Columbus for analysis by the state board.

Dr. A. Z. Domine, in charge of the patients, had prepared the solution to be used in the usual manner he stated.

THEY JUST WON'T LET OLD KING TUT REST

Luxor, Egypt, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Further antiquities of matchless beauty came to light in Tutankhamun's tomb today, when Howard Carter found two alabaster jars of exquisite design and craftsmanship together with the most delicate gold chevrons. These objects were found on the inside of the outer shrine containing the pharaoh's body.

GENERAL ORDERS DISSOLUTION OF THREE PARTIES

Army Demands Political Organizations Discontinued

BERLIN, Nov. 23. (A. P.)—Dissolution of the German Communist, Nationalist and National Socialist party organizations was ordered today by General Von Seeckt, commander-in-chief of the National Army.

Confiscation of the Communists' funds also was ordered, and the holding of Communist meetings and publication of Communist newspapers prohibited.

The grounds for his action are set forth in an official communique stating that the Communist party, by provoking the revolt in Hamburg and by their actions in Saxony and Thuringia, had clearly proved that they were aiming to incite the reichswehr to disobedience and the population generally to lawbreaking and revolt. The other parties named are held equally guilty of promoting mutiny in the ranks of the army and other subversive actions.

General Von Seeckt's proclamation forbids the wearing of emblems of the parties concerned and all acts which may be construed as propaganda for them in violation of these provisions laying the offenders open to punishment.

In consequence of order a number of buildings were searched in Berlin including the offices of the Communist newspaper, Rote Fahne, which, however, has not appeared since the state of emergency was imposed. Homes of suspected persons in Frankfurt, Erfurt and elsewhere also were searched today.

OKLAHOMA SENATORS SHOW THEIR HANDS IN KLAN DISCUSSION

Show Sympathy With Or- ganization by Heavy Majority

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Nov. 23.—(A. P.)—The problem of the Ku Klux Klan inherited by the Oklahoma legislature from its impeachment fight with J. C. Walton, deposed governor, came to the front openly in the senate today and became the center of the most spirited discussion since the special session opened October 11.

Defended and assailed in turn, the Klan was declared by its friends to be a righteous organization standing for "law and order" in the midst of crime and branded by its enemies as a revival of the organization of civil war reconstruction days.

The exchange of views, in which senators threw their cards boldly on the table and made little effort to veil their personal affiliations was marked by a display of feeling unprecedented in the session.

Opening the day with what is regarded as the first revelation of the strength of the opposing factions, in which the Klan proponents won by a vote of 23 to 13 in their fight against making public membership rolls of secret organizations the senate settled down to several hours of acrimonious debate.

But at the end of the session a second roll call revealed virtually the same alignment. Voting on an amendment that changed but slightly the provisions of the previous clause, the senate rejected it 23 to 15.

A provision was adopted, however, providing that names of officers of secret organizations should be filed with county authorities.

TWO INDICTED IN TEXAS BOMB CASE

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas, Nov. 23.—Victor Fuentes of San Antonio, was charged with murder and his stepson, Juan Morales, 14 year old newsboy, was charged with being an accessory after the fact, in connection with the sending of the bomb which killed J. A. Barnes and his young son, Jesse, here November 14, in indictments returned today by the grand jury here, according to the district attorney's office.

Morales told officers shortly after the tragedy that he delivered the package containing the bomb to a San Antonio express office for a crippled man, whom he did not know. The boy was brought here several days ago and was held by state rangers in connection with the case.

LONGWORTH REPLIES TO STATEMENTS MADE BY ILL. CONGRESSMAN

Says Republicans Must Unite or Democrats Will Win

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Appealing for harmony among republican members of the house, Representative Longworth of Ohio, who is a candidate for Republican leader declared in a letter made public tonight that lack of team work would enable the Democrats to do what they pleased.

The communication addressed to house Republicans called attention to the party's slender majority in the next house and emphasized that Republican success at the polls next year would depend largely upon the record of the congress soon to meet, and that the "main theater of political activity will be the house of representatives in which most important pieces of legislation must originate."

Referring to the contest that has developed between him and Representative Graham, Illinois, for leader, Mr. Longworth declared he was in the fight to stay, although he had hoped the question together with others relating to house organization might be determined "with substantial unanimity."

With the assistance of a "very few men" on the Republican side, out of sympathy with the organization, Mr. Longworth said, the Democrats would be in position to control house developments. He called attention to the loss by the Republicans of a large number of their "best parliamentarians and fighting men," while the Democrats, he added, "have lost none of their fighting force and have a number of additions of great strength."

"Something has been said about sectionalism," Mr. Longworth's letter continued. "It is as much opposed to sectionalism as anyone and if I could have my way there would not be a section of the country nor a school of Republican thought that would not be fairly and effectively represented in the organization of the next house."

"The speaker of the next house will be Frederick H. Gillett of Massachusetts as able and fair a speaker as has ever presided here. It is a little difficult to see how floor leadership from Ohio is sectionalism, and leadership from Illinois is not."

"I have always been and am now in favor of an enlargement of the steering committee from its present size, in order that there can be no question that every section of the country is effectively represented and this I shall urge in the committee on committees of which I shall be a member."

FAKE MONEY ORDERS USED BY SWINDLER

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Discovery that the Western Union Telegraph company had been systematically swindled sums ranging from $500 to $700 thru "fake" telegraphic money orders was followed today by the arrest of Abraham Marks. Officials said they believed there was an accomplice among employees.

Marks, and perhaps others, the police said, might have gone on collecting money indefinitely had not a sharp eyed official of the company noticed that an order to pay, enroute to the cashier's desk bore the title "C.R." which office regulations barred.

Investigation disclosed that the order believed to have been circulated by an inside accomplice, was a fake. The police now believe that Marks was one of a band of swindlers who planned to extend their elaborate operations to Detroit, Pittsburgh Chicago and other cities, involving the possible loss of thousands of dollars.

CIVILIZATION IS TOO MUCH FOR WILD MAN

PAGO PAGO, Samoa, Oct. 15.—(Correspondence of the A. P.)—Tutuila, last black wildman, reputed by the natives of American Samoa to have been of cannibalistic tendencies has succumbed to the rigors of civilization.

He died of pneumonia at the Samoan Hospital here recently after a primitive existence of 33 years on Tutuila's Jungles.

The "Maui" or wildman was captured under rather dramatic circumstances last April by an escaped native prisoner who had taken to the hills and was contemplating suicide when he was suddenly confronted by the savage. The convict overcame the wildman, bound him and took him to the Tutuila naval station here. The capture ended a generation of fear among the native population.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23.—John H. Roberts, negro attorney, today lost his suit for $40,000 damages against the St. Louis & San Francisco railway company for ejecting him from a day coach into a "Jim Crow" car. A jury returned the verdict.

BOMB OUTRAGES TOTALLY WRECK TWO CONSULATES

Building Occupied by Spanish and Italian Officials

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—A bomb was exploded early today (Saturday) on the door step of the Spanish consulate on Pine street. Scores of persons in the neighborhood were hurled from their beds, several being cut and bruised. No one was killed or seriously injured the police said.

Two other explosions, apparently of bombs, occurred shortly after 2 a. m., about a mile from the scene of the first blast. One of them wrecked the Sons of Italy Bank at Twelfth and Tasker streets and the other was in front of a building at Fifteenth and Dickinson.

The Italian consulate was located in the bank building. Houses for blocks around the neighborhood were shaken but no one was injured as far as could be learned. The entire front of the consulate was blown out and window panes in nearly every house in the block were shattered by the force of the explosion.

The bomb, concealed in a box the size of a suit case, was left on the door step of the consulate and was picked up by Consul Emile De Motta, when he returned from the theater and carried into the hallway. After going to bed the consul told the police that he had concluded the package might have been left on the door step by a passerby and that he thought best to replace it. Not thinking it contained a bomb he retraced his steps to the first floor and placed the bomb on the door step. He had hardly gotten into bed when there was a terrific explosion, his room was badly wrecked but Mr. DeMotta was not injured beyond a severe shaking up.

The blast shook the Pennsylvania hospital which is nearby and caused excitement among the patients. Consul De Motta said he had no idea who left the bomb.

DRY LAW OPPONENTS WILL HOLD MEETING TO SUGGEST CHANGES

"Face the Facts" Confer- ence to Convene in January

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—(AP)—A nationwide rally of those opposed to prohibition will be held in Washington January 21.

Convened under the auspices of the association against the prohibition amendment, the meeting will discuss the results of four years of legal drought, and will formulate plans to secure a modification of the present dry laws.

The names of many prominent Americans appear on a list of those expected to attend, made public tonight by the association. They include Senators Bayard of Delaware and Bruce of Maryland Representative Hill of Maryland, W. W. Atterbury, Marshall Field, Seth Low, Kermit Roosevelt, Gertrude Atherton, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the Reverend Edmund Banks Smith of the Army Chaplain's Corps; August Thomas, A. B. Spreckels, Owen Wisner, Walter Damrosch, Rear-Admiral G. F. Goodrich, and Major General Mason Wright.

The association's announcement named the meeting a "Face the Facts" conference. "The country," it said, "has already been reeled with the proceedings of two conferences on the subject of prohibition enforcement."

"Both by their very being constituted a complete admission that Volsteadism has been a dismal failure. The coming conference of the Anti-Saloon League will be a more formal celebration of the four years of failure which it will commemorate."

"The face-the-facts conference proposes to take up these tacit admissions of failure and meet them with a concrete program to end the evils which Volsteadism has brought into existence."

INSTITUTES SEARCH FOR QUACK DENTISTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—New York City's search for quacks took a new turn today, when deputy Attorney General Dwyer trained his guns on some 500 fraudulent dentists alleged to be practicing in this city.

A THOUGHT

Whoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. — Mark 9:42.

Cruelty, like every other vice, requires no motive outside of itself; it only requires opportunity. — George Eliot.

At any rate it must be admitted that the Chicago Tribune is doing all in its power to nullify the 18th amendment and to increase the consumption of liquor in Chicago and Cook county.

The holdup on the hard road is just a repetition of similar incidents on hard surfaced highways in other parts of the state. The time must come when some sort of police protection is afforded country highway travelers.

Mr. Laphier yesterday gave city planning a real boost. This prominent Springfield citizen, who is thoroughly imbued with the importance of city planning, made it very clear that the city plan project is not a visionary matter but something of real practical present day worth, taking into account the possibilities of the future.

Jacksonville in the steps taken toward city plan work is purporting to show something of the same spirit evidenced in Decatur.

SUPREME COURT MAJORITIES

It has often been urged in recent years that Congress curb the power of the Supreme Court to declare laws unconstitutional. Most of such demands have been comparatively moderate, contenting themselves with insisting that when the court does annual act of Congress, it should not do so by a mere five to four decision, but by a decision concurred in by a more substantial majority of the judges.

Now comes John H. Clarke, a former associate justice of the court, with the suggestion that the court itself should adopt such a plan. Writing in the Journal of the American Bar Association, he recalls an old rule, formerly followed by the court, by which it never held a law unconstitutional when several of the judges concluded that it was valid. In other words, it enforced of its own accord a standard requiring decisions to be near enough unanimous so that no critic could attribute and decision to mere whim, prejudice or accident.

GOVERNMENT BY RADIO

Lord Burnham, considering the question of broadcasting as a possible branch of the British postal service, foresees general use of radio for governmental purposes. He suggests that a day may come soon when British imperial conferences like the one recently held in London will not require the presence of the premiers of the various self-governing dominions. The governmental heads of England, Canada, South Africa, Australia, etc., will discuss imperial questions with each other by radio, while sitting in their own offices in their respective capitals. And when the British prime minister has an important address to make, it will be transmitted by radio to the other prime ministers as a matter of course.

The prospect of the big widely scattered British Empire governing itself by radio is one that stirs the imagination of an age that is jaded with wonders. It suggests, too, to any active mind, numerous uses to which radio could be profitably applied by our own government.

Soon, no doubt, we shall have the President's addresses to Congress broadcast officially by a government station. Why not broadcast also the regular pro-

JESSE JAMES

Jesse James never lived at all. R. F. Dibble claims in his new book, "Strenuous Americans." The notorious bandit, according to Dibble, "was a pure creation of the mind. He was born, he lived, he died, in the complex and far-reaching imagination of his race. He was America's Odysseus, America's Beowulf, America's Robin Hood."

Over a western bank we once saw a weather-beaten sign riddled with bullets which old residents claimed were from Jesse's pistol. We have seen other historical relics of his career. We have further been led to believe that Jesse was shot April 3, 1882, while hanging a picture on the wall, and we have talked with old time reporters who "covered" that shooting.

All hokum and bunkum, according to dabbling Mr. Dibble.

We'd be inclined to believe that Dibble was joking—if he weren't so historically accurate in his treatment of other characters in his book; such as P. T. Barnum, Brigham Young, Mark Hanna, Admiral Dewey and James J. Hill. Come to think of it we never actually saw Jesse James. All we know about him is hearsay, second hand evidence. So we have to believe either Dibble or the rival faction of historians.

The more we ponder this, the less certain we feel of our ground. And the more it draws on us that 99 per cent of the things we "know"—things we accept as unquestioned fact—are merely matters of faith on our part.

For instance, we have always believed that Columbus was first to discover America, though we have no actual proof that any such person as Columbus ever existed. Our confidence in Chris rests on tradition—inherited say-so.

Similarly, we believe there's a city named Hongkong, though we've never seen it.

Faith is the mightiest of all human forces.

LUTHERANS TO RAISE LARGE BUILDING FUND

A nation-wide campaign is to be instituted next Sunday among the Lutheran churches for the raising of $3,850,000 as a building fund for the denomination. The movement will extend all over the United States and Canada, the subscriptions to be made payable in installments spread over a period of two years.

Rep. J. G. Kuppler, pastor of Salem Evangelical Lutheran church in this city, has announced that the local church will make an every member canvass tomorrow for the purpose of raising its quota of the total fund.

One of the principal projects for which the money is to be sought is the moving of St. Louis, Missouri, from its present location to a site near Washington park in St. Louis. This project, it is estimated, will cost approximately two and a quarter million dollars.

Mrs. H. J. Rodgers and Miss Edith Rodgers will return today from a motor trip to St. Louis where they have been visiting for a few days.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

HOPELESS

BY BERTON BRALEY

(The Bridge Friend's Lament)

Oh, she is young and slender,
And pretty as a peach;
Her smile is warm and tender,
And gracious is her speech.
Few girls are any fairer,
Yet my affection slumps;
I can't forgive this error,
She won't get out her Tramps!

SWEET, kind and altruistic,
Bright, sensible and sane,
She's gay and optimistic
And has a clever brain.
She's thrifty, wise and canny
And gives my heart the thumps,
But this thing gets my nanny,
She WON'T get out the Tramps!

SHE'D be a wife and mother
To make a fellow proud,
There isn't any other
Can match her in the crowd;
There's no one any truer,
But—here's the fact that stumps,
(Oh, Bridge Friends, dare I woo her?)
She WON'T get out the Tramps!

GARNISHES

When you serve a salad or dessert do you think how attractive to look at you can make it as well as how good to eat?

And when you must use up left-over meats in croquettes or creamed on toast do you ever think that a tiny sprig of parsley dropped here and there on the platter lifts the dish several notches higher in the estimation of the family?

There are so many simple garnishes that are inexpensive and require no special tools that it seems a pity the average housewife overlooks the possibilities of her hand.

Cold roast or broiled meat, thinly sliced and arranged neatly on a platter in an overlapping fashion, is twice as appealing as if carelessly served.

Just a sprinkling of paprika last thing before sending a platter of creamed beef on toast to the table adds an intriguing touch to an everyday standby.

Hard-boiled Eggs
Hard-boiled eggs are an effective garnish. They are cut in rings across the egg or lengthwise. The white then makes petal-shaped sections and the yolk is sliced to form the center of the daisy. Can't you imagine a mound of dark green spinach with one of these posies in the center, and a ring of fluffy rice surrounding the base of the mound? Serve a rich white sauce or a smooth cheese sauce in a separate dish and the whole provides nourishment as well as beauty. This combination might be used as the main dish for luncheon with the meat course for dinner.

Mere threads of canned pimiento thru a cabbage salad or any vegetable or meat salad masked with mayonnaise add much to the dish. Head lettuce is high, but if the outside leaves are cut in "ribbons" and used as a salad garnish there is not waste to the head. These tiny green ribbons are lovely worked into nests for individual salads or used to surround a large molded salad.

A left-over vegetable salad molded in jelly or simply moulded on a bed of lettuce shreds, masked with yellow mayonnaise and "trimmed" with threads of scarlet pimiento, thin slices of olives, tiny diamonds of pickled beets can be evolved in the home kitchen.

With the vegetable cutters and pastry tubes now on the market all sorts of marvelous things are done. Mashed potatoes blossom into roses with hearts of creamed carrots. Turnips are cut in marbles and piled in little mounds before the sauce is poured over them. Or potatoes cut with the same vegetable cutter are parboiled in salt water, drained and sautéed in bacon fat or butter to a delicious brown and served as a garnish for a steak.

Maraschino cherries are cut in quarters and used quite as effectively as a whole cherry for garnishing desserts.

Egg or Pudding
A bit of sparkling currant jelly dropped on each dish of everyday rice pudding does wonders for the pudding. Shreds of candied orange peel can be used in the same way. Sections or slices of lemon sprinkled with minced parsley garnish the fish platter as well as furnishing the necessary piquant touch to the fish.

If you start garnishing your dishes you will find it fascinating work and be surprised at the many possibilities before you every day. The garnish habit grows and adds much to the interest in serving meals. It is an actual kitchen economy, often utilizing left-overs for the "garniture" and determining to a great degree the palatableness of an uninteresting dish by making it "look good enough to eat." (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

Lincoln would seem more real and less mythological if these two inventions could have been used when he was making his Gettysburg address.

Way
Ted Wright went from Los Angeles to San Francisco on roller skates, 450 miles in 73 hours of actual skating, 23 hours along the way for resting and eating.

He had pavement all the way except six miles of dirt roads. Our civilization is building a wonderful network of good highways. Before they're finished, traffic will switch into the air.

Drop
French girl, wearing a self-opening parachute weighing only 12 pounds, jumped from an airplane traveling 100 miles an hour. She landed gently, uninjured.

This may be the way flying will be made "safe." Passengers might wear parachutes in open planes so they would fall if the machine plunged from under them. At any rate, one experimenter for safety like this French girl, Denyse Collin, is worth more to aviation's future than a dozen stunt fliers.

ELKS BALL PROVES GRAND SUCCESS

The ball given by the B. P. O. E. Friday evening was a pronounced success in every particular. The hall was beautifully decorated and an unusually large crowd enjoyed the hospitality of the Bill's. Music of the highest order was furnished and refreshments left nothing to be desired. All of the guests were high in their praise for the entertainment furnished.

WITH THE SICK
While attending a meeting of Sorosis at the home of Miss Rhodes on West College avenue Friday afternoon, Mrs. W. H. H. King suffered a heart attack. Mrs. King's condition last night was somewhat improved.

HUNDREDS AT DAVID PRINCE SCHOOL MEET

Big Audience Assembled for Program Given Under Parent-Teachers Association Auspices—Results Announced in Attendance Contest.

The second meeting of the David Prince Junior High School Parent-Teachers Association was held at the Junior High assembly hall Friday night with over 500 persons in attendance.

The evening's entertainment was given under the direction of Miss Cloyd assisted by Miss Carter and Miss McDaniels and Miss Alkire. Costumes for the autumn leaves were made by the 8th grade girls in Sewing under the direction of Miss McMurphy.

Work Explained.
Miss Cloyd made an introductory preface to the program explaining that the work on the whole was that as planned by the children in the English department. After which Miss Alkire gave an outline of the work as covered in the history department during the past week which is National Education week, and told of the work done in studying the Constitution. With Miss Alkire as leader the entire seventh grade repeated in unison the Preamble.

This was followed by the history of our flags, an exercise by a group of children of whom Ruth Rawlings was chairman. Helen Drake, Frances Cody, Elizabeth Jones, Mildred Mason presenting flags of various kinds the U. S. has had, from the early one adopted by the colonies when still giving allegiance to England, to the Betsy Ross flag. Edward Baxter gave the Etiquette of the flag; Virgil Gibbs, the history of the song, America, and Lucy Elizabeth Jones, the history of the Star Spangled Banner.

Miss Carter then came forward and with Miss Marion Spruit at the piano, led the audience in singing the national anthem, and three boys carried the flag and held it up during the singing, and the whole was very impressive.

A clever, original play, written by Mary Frances Scott of Section 6, and acted by the members of the same section, "Ten Minutes in a Public Library," was prefaced by an introduction by Dorothy Bernice Graham, who explained the purpose of the scene to portray some of the experiences to which a librarian is subjected. The play really was an apt presentation of the services of the work of the library in its assistance to the student body. Considerable merriment was caused when the library patrons called for "The Children of the Clouds" when desiring Orphanus of the Storm, and "Afloat on an Ice-box" when "Adrift on an Ice-boat" when the book wished. Catherine Goebel acted as librarian, and the entire section 6 were patrons of the library.

A very much enjoyed violin duet, "Barcelle by Bartlett," was played by Beaumont Potter and August Ulrich.

A thanksgiving play was then given, entitled, "The Soul of Priscilla" with the following cast: Priscilla—Hazel Ruyle, Columbia—Esther Chipchase, Indian Woman—Annabelle Scott.

John Alden—Charles Henry Rammelkamp, Miles Standish—Yale Pontius.

Two very pretty dances were put on—an English dance, by Ruth Robinson, Ursula Brockhouse, Helen Richards, and Elizabeth Young, and Autumn Leaves, by Beryl Vasconcellos, Norma Davis, Harriet Ranson, Lola Adams and Mildred Turner. The costumes in this dance deserve especial mention. The brown crepe dresses covered with the vari-colored leaves were very effective. The gaiety and grace of the dance reminded one of the rustling of leaves.

The whole evening's entertainment reflected great credit on those having the program in charge and Miss White and her efficient corps of teachers have cause to feel gratified with the results of their labors.

Attendance Record.
Miss Grassley, chairman of the visiting committee, reported that there had been 44 parents visiting in the seventh grade since the last parent-teachers' meeting, scoring 104 points, and that in the eighth grade there had been 45 parents visiting scoring 109 points. This makes a total of 89 parents visiting during the past month. Yesterday 31 parents spent full time period at the school. Miss Mason announced that the attendance for the evening stood, eighth grade, with an enrollment of 163, 134 points, with a percent of 82.2, and the seventh grade with an enrollment of 157 with 134 points and a percent of 85.2, making the second winning in attendance contest for the seventh grade.

The Association presented to the seventh grade a plant in token of the winning. In October, J. Hamilton receiving it for his grade and Harold May for the 8th grade visiting contest, and Frederick Hdok for the 7th grade in recognition of the November winning, as the pictures planned for the prizes are not yet ready for presentation.

There was much enthusiasm over the contests, and the eighth grade has a chance for winning next month if the average above the seventh grade is sufficient. The meeting adjourned to meet January 10th.

NEW LAMP BURN
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps.
It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent oil and six per cent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. L. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the

If he had succeeded in getting to

The high school lecture course was instituted Thursday night with a performance by one Mr.
Moose as a ventriloquist and magician. The highest satisfaction was given, and the result is more firm support of this course by the high school and the general public. The attendance was large, the new assembly hall being crowded. There will be another of the five numbers prior to Christmas.

A delegation of White Hall
Baptists attended the revival service at Roodhouse Thursday night, making up a large proportion of those present at the service which is one of the closing sessions that have been in progress in the Baptist church there for nearly four weeks.

One feature of the White Hall revival results is of exceptional interest. Misses Cora Clark, Edna Moles, and Sylvia Painter have decided to take up missionary training at Chicago, and Miss Clark will go there the first of the new year. The other two plan to go at the close of the present term of school.

The state highway markings are now being painted through White Hall, and as a consequence all the markings of the interstate trails are becoming a thing of the past, being superseded by a white background and an outline of Illinois, the number of the route appearing in the center. Just where this has advantage over the markings of the former paintbrush trails may appear later, but it is a growing opinion that local political considerations have resulted in the practical obliteration of the great overland trails through Illinois with a consequent detriment to interstate traffic. The Mississippi Valley Highway through White Hall is an important trail north and south from Duluth to New Orleans, and it has in Illinois become a thing of the past so far as state paved roads are concerned.
Efforts to get this matter considered by the state highway authorities have availed nothing.

The army and the navy are at loggerheads because of the military program that ships the navy the airship "Shenandoah" and the "ZR-3" the rigid ship, built in Germany and soon to be delivered to the United States as this country's only share of the demand is vigorously opposed by officers of the Bureau of Naval Aeronautics.

REFUSES STUDENTS WHO ARE IN LOVE

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—Lillie Lehman, former grand opera star, is preparing to celebrate her 75th birthday tomorrow. She is still teaching girls who aspire to opera and has a number of American pupils. She refused, however, to give lessons to young women who were in love, as she says 50 years of operatic experience have taught her that artists must give undivided attention to their art.

Oysters and other good things were served and in every way it was a delightful affair.

The Friday session opened at 1:30 o'clock. Most of the morning was spent judging the display of canned fruits and vegetables.

The score card was used and each jar of fruit opened and scientifically judged by Mrs. Gumm, who spent almost the entire afternoon and evening in judging preserves, jellies, fancy work, cookies, cakes, bread, candies, etc.

The following was the program:
Music—Battle Hymn of the Republic.
Music, Piano Duet—Mrs. Harry Lanford and Ruth Finnigsmier.
Invocation—Rev. W. D. Heidreich.
Address, "How to Create Interest in Clubs"—Mrs. Elizabeth Gumm.
Music, Piano Duet—Mesdames Clarence Castle and Floyd Hierman.
Address, "Essentials and Principles of Soil Improvement"—Prof. John Pieper.

This address was of particular interest to the farmers of this locality in as much as his theme was legumes and soil inoculation. He placed great stress upon the alfalfa crop and said that the best form of inoculation was to take a pint of soil from a healthy alfalfa field and sprinkle it over a bushel of seed and now it in well prepared ground. The soy bean, the speaker said, was also a valuable crop because it increased the fertility of the soil, but the germ of inoculation was not the same as for alfalfa.

Address, "How to Create Interest in Clubs"—Mrs. Elizabeth Gumm.
She would welcome the children to the clubs, would serve them with the delectable fare, the prettiest china, and always give them a place at the table. Mothers will usually go where children are welcome and in this manner club interest will be created. This talk was brief but very interesting.

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

FOOTBALL PENDULUM MAKES LAST SWING IN BIG TEN TODAY

Michigan and Illinois Will Fight to Keep Their Slates Clean

CHICAGO, Nov. 23. (A. P.)—The football pendulum makes its last swing in the western conference championship race tomorrow with intentions that the 1923 season will result in another tie duplicating the 1922 campaign when Michigan and Iowa claimed stellar honors. The undefeated Michigan and Illinois teams will be fighting to keep their slates clean and emerge in a championship deadlock but Minnesota called the surprise eleven of the 1923 campaign may furnish an upset that would leave Illinois in undisputed possession of the mythical title.

The dangerous Minnesota crew undefeated but held to a scoreless tie will collide with Michigan in what promises to be the most desperately fought game on tomorrow's schedule.

Victories for Illinois and Minnesota tomorrow would give Illinois an undisputed claim to the title, although both the Illini and Gophers would have a percentage of 1.000.

The Gophers, however, have the stain of the Wisconsin tie on their record while Illinois has a clear record, having whipped Nebraska, Butler, Iowa, Northwestern, Chicago, Wisconsin and the Mississippi Aggies in a row.

Illinois is an overwhelming favorite to run over the Ohioans who have only won one of their four conference games this season.

The Chicago-Wisconsin game at Stagg Field, although not involving the title occupies the spotlight, along with the battles at Ann Arbor and Columbus. Chicago is generally regarded as the favorite, but Wisconsin, after losing a stubborn fight to Michigan a week ago, is in a frame of mind to spring an upset.

Purdue is regarded as a slight favorite in its annual clash with Indiana at Bloomington, while Iowa, still smarting from the beating administered by Minnesota a week ago figures to wallop Northwestern at Evanston.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—The cue wizardry of the two Japanese players in the 18.2 balk line billiard junior championship asserted itself today and both of them triumphed over their American opponents in two of the shortest games of the tournament to date.

In the first game, Tadeo Suganuma, of Japan defeated Al Taylor of Ann Arbor 300 to 100. The second game resulted in the first victory of Kinrey Matsuyama of San Francisco, who defeated Albert J. Cutler of New York 300 to 130.

NOW JUST WHAT DID MURPHY'S MESSAGE MEAN?

Charley Murphy, former owner of the Chicago Cubs, once was a newspaperman in Cincinnati.

So when Cincinnati was getting up a dinner in honor of Miller Huggins, first Cincinnati man ever to manage a world championship team, Murphy was invited. Murphy didn't accept the invitation. Instead, he sent the following telegram to Garry Herrmann, toastmaster:

"Miller Huggins should be shot at sunrise or quartered and boiled in oil instead of being the guest of honor of a bunch of loyal National League fans after his dirty work against the Giants in the world series. It is disgraceful. Sorry I can't be with you."

I. S. D. TIGERS MEET REAL FOE TODAY

Leave This Morning for Taylorville to Meet High School—Conceded to be One of Hardest Games of Season.

The I. S. D. Tigers will leave by auto this morning for Taylorville where they meet the high school of that place in a grid contest this afternoon, for their last game of the season away from home. They will close the season on their own grounds on Turkey Day when they meet the Kansas School for the Deaf.

The Tigers have made a good record this year but if they can't record today they will have to use all of their spark and gas as they are bucking up against a real team. Here's how the past dope stands:

Champaign beat I. S. D. 10 to 3. Champaign and Pana tied 6 to 6.

Pana and Taylorville tied 7 to 7.

From the above list of scores Taylorville should be doped to win, but a great many judges of a football team will be willing to wager an opinion that the Tigers will bring home what they go after, for the season our West End boys have never yet conceded that they are licked until they are ready to finally leave the field. Furthermore, the team is a far different organization than the one which played last year. This man Rose has developed into a bear-cat. Crabbe always was that kind of animal, and Clark is beginning to show the full length of his claws.

Coach Burns has developed his line men so that any gains made in that locality will be well earned by the opposing team. So if grit, speed, and determination has anything to do with winning football games, the deaf boys should be conceded a fighting chance in any company. Therefore we are going to end by prophesying a victory, but a close one, for the I. S. D. Tigers.

KANSAS AGGIES WON FROM OKLAHOMA

MANHATTAN, Kan., Nov. 23.—Oklahoma staged a game battle in the final period here this afternoon but failed to overcome the lead piled up by the Kansas Aggies in the second and third quarters. The final score was 21 to 20, Bowles' unsuccessful attempt to kick goal spelling defeat for the Sooners.

Brilliant work by Bristow in the last period featured the Oklahoma comeback.

STUDENTS ENGAGE IN PHYSICAL ACTIVITIES

Chicago. (NEA)—Major John L. Griffith, commissioner of athletics of the Intercollegiate Conference, contradicts flatly the often repeated statement that competitive athletics injure general physical education. His position is based on a survey just completed of the 10 middle western universities comprising the conference.

"The number of men in physical activities has increased from 25 per cent to 53 per cent in the last 25 years," announces Major Griffith.

"Athletic directors of the conference reported to me a total of 11,296 men enrolled in the year 1897-98, and 2,886 in physical activities. Team spirit and interest in inter-collegiate contests have been growing steadily since then. Yet last year, with a total enrollment of 48,091, there were 28,622 engaged in physical activities."

"The conclusion is obvious. Team athletics do not stifle personal athletic development among the rank and file of students.

THREE I. C. STARS TO MAKE FAREWELL BOW

Capt. Riess, Weber, and Rogers Will Play Final Game

Today is the day when the Norsemen from Augustana college invade Illinois Field to give battle to the Blue and White football warriors at 2 o'clock. Fresh from their victory over Eureka college last Saturday the Swedes come to the local gridiron determined to scalp the Illinois team in like manner. As the Illinois boys still feel the sting of that 7 to 6 defeat handed to them last season at Rock Island and are determined to turn the tables this afternoon the game promises to be a thriller.

Capt. Riess, Weber and Rogers will today play their last game of football for the Blue and White. They will be out there trying with all their might to finish their careers with a victory. Their teammates will be co-operating with them in securing the fulfillment of their desire and will play a desperate game in order to send these three comrades off many a hard fought contest of the field this afternoon with the memory of a victory to close their football days.

Today is Kiwanis Day. The Kiwanis club will see the game as the guests of the Athletic association. They will meet in the gymnasium and, escorted by the college band, march across the field to their reserved seats in the bleachers.

The probable lineups, selected by Coaches Swanson and Harmon, to the start the game are:

Augustana	Position	Illinois
Left end	Johnston
Left tackle	Riess (C)
Huber	Left guard	Weber
Johnson	Center	Hackett
Johnson	Right guard	Fogleman
Bengston	Right tackle	Gard
Beausaug	Right end	Dale
Scheurman	Quarterback	Hopper
Anderson	Right halfback	Rogers
Barnes	Left halfback	Bowman
Larson	Fullback	Petefish

CENTER SCORES IN UNUSUAL MANNER

When Jack Blott, Michigan's star center, fell on a loose ball, in back of the goal line, in the recent Michigan-Iowa game, he performed a feat which is rarely accomplished on the gridiron. Not only did it win the contest for the Wolverines, but it marked one of the few times wherein a center is credited with having scored a touchdown. For pivot men on the gridiron seldom ever get a chance to carry the ball, let alone lugging it for a score. But Blott did.

Blott's performance is all the more unique in that he passed the ball for Kipke's attempted drop kick, and then raced down the field ahead of any of the other players in time to drop on the leather as it bounded across the final chalk mark after having grazed an Iowa uniform.

Camacho wants to fight Firpo. It might make a great fight. "In this corner, gents, Firpo, the wild bull of the Pampas; in the other corner, Camacho, the savage orangutan of the Punas. Both boys are members of this club."

FOOTBALL SEASON IN THE EAST COMES TO CLIMAX TODAY

Army-Navy and Yale-Harvard Games Attract Most Attention

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The football season in the east comes to a climax tomorrow with two games that stand out as the most colorful of the season—the Army-Navy battle at the Polo Grounds and the traditional struggle between Harvard and Yale at Boston.

A number of other important contests are listed including inter-sectional duels between Notre Dame and Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh and between Syracuse and Nebraska at Lincoln, Nebraska, but chief interest will be centered in the service game which 66,000 are expected to witness and the deciding "big three" engagement before probably 55,000 in Harvard stadium.

Army, because of its heavier and more experienced line up and despite its disappointments rules a favorite over the Navy.

while Yale, due to its offensive ower and impressive record is picked to down the Crimson.

Importance also attaches to the contest between Syracuse and Nebraska, conqueror of Notre Dame, despite the fact that the Orange suffered its first setback of the season last Saturday at the hands of Colgate. Interest too is being shown in Notre Dame's game with Carnegie.

Intense rivalry prevails in the battle between LaFayette and Lehigh in their game at South Bethlehem Pa., with LaFayette's powerful aggregation the favorite.

COMMITTEE OF 25 TO TALK CITY AT HOME

New Organization in C of C Will Endeavor to Sell City to Citizens—To Boost Waterworks Meeting.

An organization of the younger business men of the city to be known as the "Committee of Twenty-five," has been formed within the Chamber of Commerce, for the purpose of selling Jacksonville to its citizens. The committee will be a sort of sales organization to promote and install life into various enterprises of the city and of the Chamber of Commerce. It has been developed by the Forum executive board, and the first job assigned the committee is to get out a hundred percent attendance of Chamber of Commerce members at the Waterworks meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, December 4th. The first meeting of the new organization will be held at 9 o'clock Monday morning, when the members will receive instructions as to the work of the city government, the enterprises of the Chamber of Commerce, and many other matters which are to be talked up among the citizens. The new committee is similar to groups formed in other cities, known variously as "Dynamo clubs," "Electric clubs" etc. Thomas N. Coyle is chairman of the committee, and other members are: Vorse Bassett, Harlan Williamson, G. B. Andre, Ben F. Lane, S. E. Bergschneider, W. A. Berryman, Robert Mullerix, O. H. Hellner, L. L. STRANGER WITH CAR WANTED IN COLORADO

Sheriff Will Come Here to Take Back Troy Dennis, Captured by Police, Who Worked Two Days on Case.

Local police are holding at the station Troy Dennis, awaiting the arrival of the sheriff from Brighton, Colo., where Dennis is wanted for stealing a Reo sedan on November 8. The information as to the real identity of Dennis and the place from which the car was taken were obtained by local police late yesterday afternoon after two days of constant work on the case, in which they were assisted by Fred Wilson, superintendent of the Anti-Auto Thief association. Numerous telegrams were sent from here to Colorado and California and return, and to other points in an effort to solve the mystery of the car and the man who was found driving it about town Thursday morning. The final news on the case was a telegram from the sheriff of Adams county, Colo., asking police to hold Dennis and the car, and to find out if the man would waive extradition. This Dennis agreed to do, and the Colorado authorities were notified. They will come here and return the prisoner to Colorado. Thursday morning police were notified that a man was driving a car up and down East College avenue and about the east part of the city in a suspicious manner. The police car was put into action and the stranger was trailed about the city for nearly an hour. He led the officers thru almost every street in Jacksonville and finally they decided to stop him.

The man gave his name as C. A. Crawford and his residence as Alton. He showed the police a bill of sale for the car, which showed that he had purchased it on November 21 from Ray Robertson at Alton for $950. The machine retails new at $1,300. The officers got in touch with Alton and learned that no such person as Robertson lived there. They also found on Crawford some mail addressed to Charlie Long. The stranger said he had relatives at Woodson, and police made the trip to that place to investigate. It was finally discovered that Crawford had been at Alton on the day mentioned in the bill of sale; but under close questioning he admitted that the document was bogus. A new element was introduced into the case when police found in the rear seat of the car a pair of California license plates. A wire was sent to the west coast and it was learned that the plates belonged on a Dodge touring car which had been stolen from Oxnard, Calif., on June 18.

Connection was next made with a St. Louis information bureau, which wired Denver, Colo., giving a description of the Reo car. It was soon learned that the machine belonged to a man at Brighton, Colo., and the exchange of telegrams between the local police and the sheriff at Brighton followed. As the mystery neared solution, the man who had called himself Crawford, admitted that he was Troy Dennis.

SPRINGFIELD MAN ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

Robert C. Lanphier Discusses City Planning at Meeting of Local Rotary Club Friday

Members of the Jacksonville Rotary club had the pleasure yesterday of having an address by Robert C. Lanphier of Springfield on the subject of city planning. Mr. Lanphier, who is a trustee of Illinois college, has for a number of years been prominently identified with the business and civic life of Springfield and is a member of the Springfield city plan commission.

Friday was a day set aside for special observance by city plan commissions in more than 300 cities throughout the United States. Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, who is chairman of the Jacksonville commission, was introduced by President A. H. Dollear of the Rotary club to preside during the session. Following Mr. Lanphier's very informing address, Mayor E. E. Crabtree and former Mayor Henry J. Rodgers both spoke briefly of the possible benefits that can come thru city planning. Mr. Lanphier said that the Springfield city plan commission was organized in February, 1922, and that the members found it advisable to study the various problems presented for a period of several months. Accordingly it was May of that year before a city plan expert was employed, Mr. Myron West, who is doing similar work for a number of Illinois cities and with whom the Jacksonville commission has recently made a tentative contract.

In Springfield representatives of Mr. West's organization began work promptly and the necessary survey of Springfield was completed in eleven months' time. This exhaustive survey is to be published in a book form with maps and plats and will be for the guidance of Springfield and for general distribution.

Naturally because Springfield is the capital city and for the further reason that it is so intimately connected with the life of Lincoln, there will be numerous requests for city plan data.

The Springfield people are proposing to lay plans for a city which will increase to a population of 200,000 in 50 years hence. A great lake, the same type that Jacksonville has is included in the plan to settle the water question. A union station will be a development and extensive enlargement of the sewerage system will be necessary.

These are but a few of the important suggestions that must be taken into account by a city plan commission.

Mr. Lanphier said that it is easy to understand that all of the work proposed will cost approximately $10,000,000 and that the aims cannot be achieved in any brief period. The purpose is to make the betterments gradually and to have the city so organized that growth will be orderly. The demands which come with growth met in a satisfactory way.

The guest list of the day included: Bert Willis, Leavenworth, Ind.; C. E. Meneely, Frankfort, Ind.; W. E. Dozier, St. Louis, Mo.; H. B. Hayes, Hillsboro, Ill.; B. L. Barber, Elm Weber, Springfield, H. J. Rodgers, Jacksonville.

FUNERAL OF JOHN CHERRY HELD FRIDAY

Impressive Services for Well Known Resident Were Largely Attended.

Funeral services in memory of the late John Cherry were held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the family home on South Church street. The services were in charge of Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. W. E. Spoons and Rev. J. F. Langton.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Abe Wehl, who sang two solos in an impressive manner. The beautiful tributes were in charge of Mrs. J. Herman, Mrs. W. D. Doying, Mrs. William Floeth, Mrs. Ralph Withee and Miss Lillian Rosenthal.

Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery, the pallbearers being Dr. C. E. Scott, Dr. C. B. Powell, John N. Kennedy, J. Herman, Grant Graff and Ralph Withee.

A few paragraphs from Rev. Mr. Marbach's discourse are given below:

A funeral is a time when we look out upon life with clear ideas as to values. We are mindful of the three ways in which men are estimated. First, we ask, "What is man in the estimation of God?" Next we borrow the words of Jesus and ask "Who do men say that I am?" Finally, we consider the man's estimate of himself.

The answer to the first question is one which makes us all common. "God knoweth our frame: He remembereth that we are frail." There is no time when we feel as weak and helpless as when we face death, and ponder God our Creator. A blessing of comfort that quiets our hearts in such a time is found in the fact that "God knows" Our Creator is our Father. "Our judge is our Savior." We commit our dear ones into the hands of Him who doeth all things well. We rest our case with God.

Dear ones, relatives, friends and acquaintances such as are gathered here in goodly numbers are the answer to the second question. Naturally to each in varying degree the life of Mr. Cherry has meant something different. But we pause as those who mourn and miss one who loved his home, his church, his city, and his work. Nothing of the vindictive or harsh spirit did one find in this man. This large company, and the sad hearts of the devoted wives, daughter, son and sisters gives answer to the question, "Who do men say that I am?"

"As fades the leaf!" So let me fade, Nor sadly, nor in boastful pride,

FORM HIGH SCHOOL DEBATING LEAGUE

Organization of a state wide high school debating league is being undertaken to serve the state at large this year, by the Illinois State Normal University at Joliet, Mo. About half of the state's high schools now have such leagues, which include all the states surrounding Illinois.

The Michigan League, which is typical, had an enrollment of 140 schools last year. The estimated attendance at the debates which numbered three hundred, was 60-600.

The league has aroused much interest among the educators of the state and applications for membership are being received daily as the applications must be in before December 20th.

The interest in high school debating has been increasing, thru-out the nation, for the past few years, for the activity creates school and community interest in local, state and national problems. The young people participating receive valuable training in the thorough study of a question, and in analytical and logical thinking. A better command of the French language and an improvement as public speakers is acquired by those taking part.

The management of the Illinois League is being conducted by the Department of Reading and Public Speaking of the Illinois State Normal University, assisted by the School of Commerce, the Library Staff and the Philadelphian and Wrightonian Literary societies.

Lead only if one place I made.
The brighter that I lived and died.

The third valuation is that of the man himself. With Mr. Cherry the happy time came when he confessed his need of a power greater than human. However he may have compared with his fellow men, before God he became a humble and contrite soul. Up to the last he evidenced a faith in God that was childlike. "Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to Thy cross I cling" was the expression of his soul as he looked himself squarely in the face. Because he could say, "I know whom I have believed" there remains for those who mourn his loss a sense of comfort which brings peace.
